

Stratton Deanery Retreat 2017 - a Lenten consideration!

The GOOD NEWS is that enough people have booked their place to come with fellow Christians from our Stratton Deanery to listen to God speaking to us at the Deanery Retreat at Glastonbury to make it viable.

As you will know it is to take place from the evening of Friday 9th June until after lunch on Sunday the 11th of June at the lovely Abbey House in Glastonbury. Abbey House is situated next to the grounds of the ruined Glastonbury Abbey and those of us staying in the Abbey House will be privileged to have free access to the Abbey grounds.

The Archdeacon of Bodmin has graciously agreed to help us during our stay in our listening to God & thinking through ways in which we might respond.

The NOT so GOOD NEWS is that you may not yet have booked your place to share in this Spiritual Journey with your fellow Christians in our Deanery! But it isn't too late to do so! Use these Lenten days to rethink the reasons that you may have considered for NOT joining the journey! Ask yourself why have I not yet committed myself to make this journey with God and my fellow Christians?

The subsidised cost is £100 per person and to book your place all you have to do is fill in one of the forms which should be in every church in the Deanery and send it off with your £20 deposit to Sue Dickenson whose address is on the booking form. You won't have to pay the remaining £80 until we are at Glastonbury.

If cost, or travelling arrangements or any other aspect of the retreat is worrying you, or if you can't find a form in your church then just ask one of the clergy or email/phone me on the address or number below.

Thanks to those who have already booked their place - and if YOU haven't we very much look forward to hearing from you!
